

PHYSICIANS THERAPY & PRODUCT GUIDE

---

INDICATIONS:

SUPPORT: 16-20 mmHg

- Slight varicosities
- Slight leg swelling
- Tired, aching legs

RX COMPRESSION

CLASS I: 20-30 mmHg

- Heaviness & fatigue in the legs
- Minor varicosities
- Initial varices during pregnancy
- Post surgical
- Minor ankle, leg & foot swelling
- Superficial thrombophlebitis
- Prophylactic treatment during pregnancy
- Hereditary disposition toward vein disease
- Post sclerotherapy

CLASS II: 30-40 mmHg

- Moderate varicosities
- Moderate edema
- Lymphatic edema
- Management of venous ulcers
- Prevention of ulcer recurrence
- Prevention of post-thrombotic syndrome
- Orthostatic hypotension
- Post surgical
- Post sclerotherapy
- Effective scar formation after burns
- Pregnancy with previous phlebitis
- Stasis dermatitis due to CVI

CLASS III: 40-50 mmHg

- Severe varicosities
- Severe edema
- Lymphatic edema
- Management of venous ulcers
- Post-phlebotic syndrome
- Chronic venous insufficiency
- Lymphedema
- Venous ulcers
- Chronic venous problem post surgery
- Orthostatic hypotension

---

CONTRAINDICATIONS:

- Severe arterial insufficiency, wet dermatosis, cutaneous infections, congestive heart failure

Serious about Leg Health™